ABOUT THE LADIES OFCharity

The Ladies of Charity, founded 400 years ago by St. Vincent de Paul to respond with compassion to the needs of the poor and to care for those homebound by age or disability, are part of the International Association of Charities (AIC), with over 150,000 volunteers in Africa, Latin America, Asia, Europe, and North America. In the USA, nearly 6,000 women in 57 associations across 20 states and the District of Columbia “act together against all forms of poverty” as Ladies of Charity.
